New Autoclavable Anti-Fatigue Mat added to Healthmarks Personal Protective Equipment Line

Fraser, MI March 7, 2014 - Healthmark Industries has announced that they are adding an Autoclavable Anti-Fatigue Mat to their line of personal protective equipment (PPE) line.

Measuring 2' x 3', the mat is a perfect addition to a reprocessing station floor and is sure to relieve much of the stress the body endures from standing hours on end. Not only can the mat's solid, nonporous surface be cleaned by manual and automated methods (the latter in a cart washer), but can also can be further decontaminated by steam sterilization.
